

WE NOMINATE

James Allred Perkins, an energetic, public-spirited Princetonian and one of this country's tough-minded educators, who this week was tapped for a top spot in American education — the presidency of Cornell University, the youngest of the eight Ivy League institutions, and often described as "the easternmost of the 'Big Ten'." From the prestigious quiet of the Carnegie Corporation in New York and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the 51-year old Perkins has been summoned to Ithaca, effective July 1, as successor to retiring Deane W. Malott and as seventh president of the remarkable university founded by Ezra Cornell in 1865.

It is the consensus of educational leaders that the Cornell Trustees, headed by Ambassador Arthur H. Dean, have rolled a ten-strike in persuading Perkins to direct this highly complex institution which has some 12,000 students, draws 30% of its support from government sources, and sustains an annual operating budget of over $100 million (more than twice the size of Princeton University's). Behind Perkins stretch long years of experience as teacher and scholar, as college administrator and foundation executive, as public servant and consultant to government, and as a member (1953-1959) of Princeton Township's School Board.

A high honors graduate of Swarthmore with the Class of 1934, the Philadelphia-born Perkins completed his advanced training as a political scientist here at the University and, from 1937 until 1941, served as a member of the Princeton Faculty, first as an instructor and then as assistant director of the Woodrow Wilson School of Public Affairs. After compiling a distinguished World War II record with Federal agencies, including the Foreign Economic Administration, he moved on to the vice-presidency of Swarthmore, continuing until 1950 when he joined the Carnegie Corporation.

His elevation to the vice-presidencies of the Corporation and Foundation followed in 1951 and 1951, respectively.

Perkins, whose wife, the former Jean F. Bredin, is the able chairman of the Friends of the Joint Free Public Library of Princeton, has been identified over the years with a near-incredible number of government committees, educational boards and private research projects, ranging from the 12-member Joint Borough-Township Committee on Municipal Operations to the chairmanship of President Kennedy's Advisory Panel on a "National Academy of Foreign Affairs." Among his continuing affiliations are the General Advisory Committee of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, the U.S. Commission for UNESCO and the Board of Trustees of the Rand Corporation.

A driving force in the drafting of the "Consolidation Referendum" of 1951-52, which a decade ago was hysterically rejected by Borough and Township electorates, Perkins played a key role in the founding of the Council on Higher Education in the American Republics and chaired the committee that produced one of the best-known Rocketteller Panel Reports, "The Power of the Democratic Idea." Using this compelling, internationally-distributed report as a base-point, Perkins and two of the nation's top-notch social scientists, Pen-dleton Herring and Charles Frankel, are carrying forward the project with on-going studies of democratic growth in the emerging nations.

For carrying to Cornell "an almost unmatched experience with national perspectives, as well as a deep understanding of the massive problems confronting higher education"; for his capacity for being "at once sound and lively"; for his major contributions to this, his adopted community; he is TOWN TOPICS' nominee as

THE CHANGING SCENE
In Heart of Princeton.
Princeton residents, accustomed
to change in recent years,
learned this week of several developments that will affect
the appearance and the life of mid-town Princeton.
Trustees of the Joint Free
Public Library of Princeton
announced that, by unanimous vote, they would recommend
the Witherspoon-Wiggins corner, as a public parking lot,
as the site for a new Public Library building.

The recommendation will be sent to Borough Council and Township Committee.

Since this would eliminate
a considerable number of parking space, the trustees
will also recommend the acquisition of the Lahiere-Kane automobile agency property at the corner of Spring and Tu-
lane for public parking space.
Bainbridge House, now the
home of the public library,
would revert to the University,
which now leases it on a dollar-a-year basis.

Kane to Buy Elsewhere. "If
the library recommendation is carried out," said Herbert R.
Kane, president of Lahiere-Kane, Inc., "we will seek new

and larger quarters. Relocation will permit our firm to obtain desirable space needed to display used cars and give our service departments more space."

The trustees do not say exactly how much of the Wiggins-Witherspoon parking lot
the new building would occupy. This depends, in part, on how many spaces could be blocked out on the Lahiere-Kane plot, which is about 20, 000 square feet, so that the community would not lose
parking places.

The Borough and Township
presumably will share the expense, probably through a bond issue. Costs would be apportioned according to the present formula for sharing library expenses, which is based on use of the library by Township and Borough residents.

The Borough itself would probably buy the Lahiere-Kane property as a replacement for
the parking lot. Then, the parking lot property could be legally conveyed from the Borough, now its owner, to the Borough and Township together. The Township could then pay its share in these transactions.

No specific costs were mentioned in the library announcement. The Lahiere-Kane property has an assessed value of $43,700.

The Long Look. In their search for a library site, trustees considered 23 locations, 12 in detail. They also conferred with library experts and
consulted their citizens' advisory committee.

The perilous state of the present public library building
has brought it to the brink of major repair. The library will be closed at 6 p.m. this Saturday and will remain shut for

the rest of the month while workmen install steel columns
to re-inforce the 18th century
structure.

The back slot will remain
open, and telephone reference
service will be supplied while
the building is closed.

Nassau Property Sold. The
property at 38 Nassau, occupied by Honore's Barber Shop,
and 40 Nassau, formerly occupied by Langrock's, has been purchased by Jackson Martindell
of 132 Elm Road for an undisclosed figure.

"I bought the building because it was an outrage to have
it standing there, a potential
urban slum," Mr. Martindell said. He and his firm, Management Audit Co., Inc., have definite plans for the property
but are unable yet to reveal them, Mr. Martindell said.

The three-story building has a 32-foot frontage on Nassau Street and goes back 126 feet.
About 6,000 square feet are included in the building's three stories. In addition to the barber shop and the vacant
former store, the property includes John's Shoe Repair on John Street.

Mr. Martindell, who took title
on January 2, purchased the property from the estate of Joseph Sippley, Princeton
businessmen often as-
rough figure of $2,000 a front
foot for Nassau Street property which would bring the price to about $63,000.

Mr. Martindell also said that he has leased from Alexander Morgan the 28 acres behind
the Martindell house on Elm Road on a 10-year basis.

"I plan to make it into a meadow," Mr. Martindell said.
The land lies partly in the Borough and partly in the Township, and Mr. Martindell
said that the would like to buy
it some day and turn it over to the municipalities to keep
as open space.

DRUGTAX

A SERVICE TO TAXPAYERS

This may come as news to you, but aspirin is one of those drugs that may be of a deductible nature on your federal income tax return.

But to claim it, you must be able to offer proof you bought it.

When you buy it from us, you get that proof. But when you buy it at the corner grocery, or in a department store, or in a restaurant, you are likely to forget about it.

That goes for a lot of other things, too—such as antiseptics, cough and cold preparations, laxatives, and so on.

Our customers like to buy all of their drug supplies
from us, because they know they will get the benefit of a complete record of all purchases of a deductible
nature.

Our customers get an annual statement (mailed in February) which tells them how much they spent on drugs of a deductible nature. It's called a DrugTax record, and we offer it to our customers free of charge.

Next time you buy aspirin (or any drug item), be sure you're in a store that gives you a DrugTax record. Come income tax time, it can save you money.

New Jersey may have a percent sales tax within the next few months. If Gov. Hughes follows a recommendation of the State Tax Policy Commission, his decision is expected on January 28, and thereafter the final action would be up to the Legislature. Exempted would be all food items and prescription drugs, but virtually all else sold at the retail level would be affected... approximately $165 to $180 million annually would be raised through the state's first broad based tax... and other proposal would triple corporate taxes in New Jersey raising them from 1.75 to 5 percent.

More babies were born at Princeton Hospital during 1962 than in any previous year... the total of 1,073 topped the former record of 1,069, set three years ago, and was 22 more than the number of new arrivals in 1961. There were 16 sets of twins among the 1962 bumper crop, also a new high... October was the busiest month in the maternity ward with 116 births, while February was the quietest with 73.

Vandals rarely miss making trouble from one week to another... four windows were kicked in before dawn Tuesday on Witherspoon Street, two at Labare's Restaurant—one of them five feet square—and two at the Kung Ping Trading Co. Another convertible top was slashed, this one on a car owned by Charles Magers of Provance Line Road, Hopewell, while it was in the parking yard on Holfish Street... brass urn shaped in the form of two mermaids was stolen from the yard of Mrs. Walter Edge, 2 Elm Road, by thieves who got a fair amount of exercise for their pains... it weighs 150 pounds.

A rifleman (using BB shot) is firing indiscriminately at targets from a Princeton University Police, among the victims was a State Trooper, the rear window of whose patrol car was broken by the marksman... University police are investigating city prosecutors are investigating.

To Move Shop, On Palmer Square, Miss Helen Sailer, owner of The Joan Shop, Princeton's specialty dress shop, announced that she was going out of business at that location.

"I will find a new location," she said, "but I am not even ready to consider where it might be." She had previously owned a shop on Palmer Square for 18 years, and has been in her present location for four.

She said that parking problems for customers and lack of room to expand were her chief reasons for moving.

Meantime, Princeton waited for news that an old and favorite institution, The Ball Restaurant, was finally due to close. The building it has occupied at 80-84 Nassau Street for almost four decades has been up for sale for several months and it was indicated this week that an announcement of final sale is imminent.

ONE-CENT SALE

Everybody Collects Stamps. "I never saw a change-over like this one," said Samuel Copner, assistant postmaster of the Princeton post-office. Monday as he watched lines of one-cent stamp collectors converging on the four postoffice windows.

Although the change from four to five-cent first class mail was announced in the fall, Princeton letter-writers apparently waited until the last minute—and after—to pick up the one-cent stamps necessary to make those old four-cent envelopes legal.

"Some people came in here Monday morning asking for 1,000 one-cent stamps," Mr. Copner said on Tuesday. "We started early to ration them out, and we were selling only 25 to a customer most of the day."

Mr. Copner and Charles Murray, the postmaster, had stockpiled what they thought would be enough, about three weeks ago, they began to suspect what would occur Monday and ordered 150,000 additional one-cent stamps.

Tuesday morning, 30,000 of these arrived. The rest are still not here, apparently caught in a backlog of orders at the Bureau of Engraving.

Mr. Copner attributes the rush to Christmas. "People were so busy with Christmas mailing they forgot about the January 7 deadline," he says. In the first mail collections Monday morning, about half the letters were short the necessary one cent. Mr. Copner said by noon Monday, only about 10 percent were short. Although the legal deadline was midnight Sunday, any letter mailed after the final Sunday afternoon pick-up required the new five-cent postage.

WATER: EXPERTS REPORT
And Residents Speak. There are three new developments in the proposed sale of the Princeton Water Company.
On Thursday, 12 Princeton residents attended the second Public Utilities Commission hearing on the proposal of Elizabethtown Water to purchase controlling interest in the Princeton Water Company. Early this week, the Princeton Water Company released the recommendations of Buck, Siefert and Jost, the engineering firm retained to study the company. And Mayor Henry Patterson announced at his Tuesday press conference that the Princeton Water Company was scheduled to elect him and Robert W. Kean, Jr., president of Elizabethtown, to posts on the company's board of directors. Mr. Patterson is executive vice-president of Elizabethtown.

Of this amount, they suggest an expenditure of $454,000 for the immediate improvement of wells, transmission mains and filtering equipment; $318,000 to increase the filtering plant capacity by one million gallons per day and to add transmission mains and storage reservoirs.

The firm's report states that present earnings ($31,000 in 1961) could not possibly finance the program and that rate increases would be required.

What to Do. Items suggested for immediate action include a testing and rehabilitation program for existing well supplies; sharing Banberger's well so that water used for air conditioning could be added to the company's supplies; improving filter plant capacity; installing telemetering devices on water tanks and spending $294,000 for new transmission mains.

On a longer range basis, the report suggests exploratory work on new sources of underground supply, and an even greater expansion of the filter plant which has, in the words of the report, "certain deficiencies which should be corrected."

Residents Speak. At Thursday's hearing, Miss Esther Dilworth, Shaw Livermore, Robert van de Velde (all former Democratic candidates for Borough Council); Charles Farlington and Edward Sweeney, Mercer County Assemblymen, and John F. McCarthy, asked the P.U.C. representative, Leigh Hartshorn, for a 60-90 day delay in the decision on the sale of the water company.

They requested the delay so that the Borough could consider acquiring ownership of the Princeton Water Company. Mr. McCarthy repeated his views urging a study of municipal ownership in a statement which he read Tuesday night at Borough Council.

The P.U.C. was scheduled to meet late this week on the Princeton water question, but there has been no indication when a decision would be made. However, toward the end of Thursday's hearing, Mr. Hartshorn exclaimed, after listening to a recount of the Princeton Water Company's problems, "How is Princeton going to manage if this company (Elizabethtown) doesn't take over?"

Ask More Time. Those who spoke at the hearing referred to the suddenness of Elizabethtown's announcement that

Robert W. Kean, Jr. president of Elizabethtown, said he did not believe it would have been in the public interest to publicize his negotiations with the University while they were in progress. He explained the short interval between the announcement and the first public hearing by saying that the company wanted to begin work as soon as possible so that there would be ample water by hot weather.

Facts brought out at the hearing: The University owns 1,722 shares of Princeton Water Company stock and Princeton Theological Seminary 1,080. Current sale price is $102.54 a share. Mayor Henry Patterson owns 560 shares out of the 762,325 that are outstanding. Negotiations between Elizabethtown and the University began October 4, 1962. The company will pay cash for the University-Seminary stock as soon as P.U.C. gives its approval and does not contemplate any stock sale. Money to finance expansion of the Princeton Water Company would come from short-term bank loans, or di-

SCHOOL BUDGET UP

To Raise Taxes 31 Points
 The Borough Board of Education has announced a budget of $1,850,329 for the school year beginning next September. A public hearing is set for 8 p.m. Tuesday, January 22, at the high school.

The new budget, a whopping $1.1 million more than school costs ten years ago, shows a gross increase of nearly a quarter of a million over current expenditures. The added $223,403 needed for next year largely reflects the increased teacher salary scale approved several months ago, as well as pay raises for the secretarial and custodial staffs.

Tuition rates for high school students from the adjoining districts will be $690 per student, an increase of $480 per student. The Board expects a yield of $950,180 in tuition fees.

State and federal funds will amount to approximately $57,500, and $12,000 is the estimated receipts from balances.

Six More Teachers. The net amount to be raised by the Borough for the school year 1963-64 will be $282,649.61, a net increase of $79,608.04 over the current, 1962-63, cost. Preliminary estimates by the board indicate that the Borough tax rate for school purposes "should not increase more than 33 points."

The school board plans to add six high school teachers. Five will be added because of increased enrollment, the sixth will teach the planned class for retarded children of high school age.

Other plans mirrored in the proposed budget include repair and resurfacing of the tennis courts to provide better facilities for the physical education and community use, improvement of the girls' locker room, as well as needed repairs.

Additional funds are budgeted as part three of the board's five-year plan for library improvement. Additional students reflect the need for increased funds in textbooks and supplies. Money has also been allocated for data processing service for the high school.

The Borough school system serves 2,545 pupils, including 1,545 in the high school and 978 in the elementary schools. Of the approximately 200 employees, 134 are teachers.

A public referendum on the proposed budget, as well as election for the three vacant seats on the Board of Education will be held on Wednesday, February 13.

BUDGET STUDIED

By Township Residents. A seven-page explanation of the Township's first two-million-dollar school budget will be distributed this week to every home in the municipality for examination and study before the February 13 election date. Public hearing on the budget will be held next Thursday at 8 in the Community Park school library.

Copies of the report will also be available at the schools, and there is one in the Princeton Public Library.

The $2,003,939 budget, 18.2 percent more than last year, will mean an increase in the school tax rate, the report points out. Ratebates in the Township increased 5 percent in 1962, which helps some, but not enough. The school tax rate is now $15.47 for each $1,000 assessed property valuation. The new budget will raise that by $2.51 per thousand, to $17.98.

The "Why" of More. The Board of Education gives four reasons for the budget increase: more pupils at the schools (a 10 percent jump is anticipated); the new salary schedules adopted in conjunction with the Borough Board of Education; higher tuition for Township students attending Princeton High and plans for strengthening the Township curriculum.

At the time the report to the taxpayers was prepared, the Township Board had not yet received from the Borough Board a detailed explanation of reasons for raising the high school tuition from $255 to $690 per pupil. This information has since been received.

In its communication, the Borough Board says that 57 percent of the increase is due to the new salary schedule for teachers, followed by increased enrollment and the establishment of a high school class for educable children (17 1/2 percent) and by the need to make repairs in the high school building (14 1/2 percent). These include improvements in the girls' locker room, surfacing of the tennis courts and the application of antiskid material to the stairs.

"This is really a very reasonable tuition rate," commented Dr. John McKeown, superintendent of schools, at a press conference held to explain the new budget. Richard Pearson, Board chairman, added that the Board was completely satisfied.

Since 1951-52, the Borough has charged its sending districts less, than the legally allowed per pupil cost. The Board explained. If the Borough did charge on this basis, the tuition could be as high as $740. The estimated per-pupil Borough cost.

BOROUGH TO FIELD FOUR

In School Board Race, Edward G. Hofersang of 20 Forster Drive, a member of the Planning Board, has appeared as a fourth candidate in the contest for the three seats on the school board.

Mr. Hofersang is an administrative analyst in the New Jersey Bureau of the Budget. He has two children in the Nassau Street School and is a member of the P.T.A. A graduate of Montclair State Teachers' College, he received a master's degree in governmental administration from the University of Pennsylvania.

Others in the race are Dr. Elmer G. Hominghausen of 117 Library Place, professor of theology at Princeton Seminary, who has served on the Board of Education for the past 12 years; John A. Buck-

The current mild spell has been particularly welcome after the frigid blast that ushered 1963 into the world. It is, of course, a case of enjoying the heat while you can—a temperature drop is inevitably just around the corner. Friday is scheduled to be the corner, and Saturday... possibly snow.

News Of The THEATRES

WHO'S AFRAID?
Actors May Return. Theatre-
goers who are apprehensive
about missing Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? have been asked by McCarter Theatre to send in their names for inclusion on a waiting list. Negotiations are now under way for a return engagement by the matinee company, and names on the McCarter waiting list will be notified of possible future
dates in Princeton.

The matinee company will come to McCarter this Friday evening, and the S.R.O. sign is out, and has been for some time; in fact, McCarter was never under any pressure to request for tickets ever since
the appearance was announced
three weeks ago.

Edward Albee's play will be given in Princeton by the matinee company of the New York
production. In an unusual departure from theatrical custom,
"Who's Afraid?" has two companies, one of which takes on the matinee assignment. The play is considered too taxing
to actors to play twice in one day.

According to the McCarter
management, a Broadway company would never have appeared elsewhere while still playing in New York, and theatre
managers generally are watching the Princeton experiment
with considerable interest.

Those who wish to be placed on the waiting list may write to McCarter at Box 526,

Princeton.

OLD AND NEW
Ballet Will Dance Both. A varied program combining new
works with traditional ballets
will be presented in Princeton
on Friday, January 25, when
the American Ballet Theatre
appears in Princeton in a special benefit performance.

The company's appearance
will benefit a projected Princeton Regional Ballet, which would provide for young dancers
in the area the opportunity to acquire semi-professional experience and to advance toward professional careers in the dance.

For its Princeton program,
the American Ballet Theatre
has chosen the suite, "Princess Aurora" from Tchaikovsky's
"Sleeping Beauty" ballet; "The Combats," William Dollar's
modern work; "Les Patineurs," portraying a skating party, and
"Theme and Variations," cho-
reographed by George Balanchine. It is possible that a choice may be made between
"The Combats" or "Les Patineurs."

The McCarter appearance,
sponsored by the Princeton Ballet Society, is part of the American Ballet Theatre's
current tour of more than 60
cities, coast to coast. The 23-
year-old group has performed
in 37 countries on four continents, including the Soviet Union in the fall of 1960. Russian critics accorded the group
high critical acclaim.

Tickets are on sale in the McCarter Theatre box office.

The program will consist

He has assembled his com-

COSSACK CHIEF: Yul Brynner plays the vengeful head of a Cossack tribe in "Taras Bulba" coming to the Prince and the Playhouse next Wednesday.

permit him to be his own man. This strange pair accidentally find happiness with each other, and encounter a mountain of human problems. The dialogue is witty and the situations all once amusing and pathetic. Comment: A sophisticated comedy, skillfully played.

"Taras Bulba" (opens next Wednesday at both theatres) is a big, colorful pageant of 16th Century Cossacks. There are clashes of splendidly mounted men, a siege of a turreted town and daring tests of horsemanship.

Yul Brynner plays the title role of the Cossack chief, a victim of Polish treachery who has pledged his life to vengeance. Tony Curtis is the more aggressive of his two sons, who makes the fatal error of falling in love with a beautiful Polish girl, played by Christine Kaufmann.

There are moments of high excitement as the awashbuckling Cossacks, superbly at home in the saddle, roam the steppes in search of battle, or loot, or freedom from the Poles. There are also scenes of almost sadistic cruelty and inhuman punishment. The movie, filmed on the vast plains of Argentina, which resemble the steppes of the Ukraine, is based on the book by Nikolai Gogol. Comment: A rough and hardy lot.

GARDEN

The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner (now playing) The new British school of realism in film-making, which began about four years ago with "Room At The Top," continues with this picture. The plot deals with the working class, centering around an 18-year-old slum lad who is sent to reform school after robbing a bakery. The warden discovers he has a talent as a long-distance runner and prompts him to win a race which will reflect credit on the institution. In flashbacks, introduced as reveries of the young runner, his past life is revealed: the painful death of his father; his foolish mother, and his romance with a school girl. The film contains some a little character observation and satiric comment on life in England under the Welfare State. The writer, Alan Sillitoe, is most biting (and funny) in showing up the pomposity of some go-gooders. Comment: rough edges and sensitivity.

FILM SCHEDULED

On Deep Sea Treasures. A color motion picture entitled "3000 Years Under the Sea" will be shown at the YMCA Monday, January 28. The film deals with the discovery of underwater treasures in the Aegean Sea and was made by Stanton Waterman, a diving photographer and explorer.

Mr. Waterman, who narrates the film, photographed the exploits of an American diving expedition during the summer of 1959. The divers discovered a wrecked cargo ship which had carried copper and bronze during the late Bronze Age.

Some 3000 years ago, the ship met disaster on the remote southeastern coast of Asia Minor and sank 100 feet into the Aegean Sea. Considered to be the oldest shipwreck ever found, the discovery was the subject of a "National Geographic" article in May 1960.

In another sequence, the camera recorded a 230-foot descent to the site of the wreck of a modern Greek warship. Tickets for the program are available through the Y Sea Club which is sponsoring the film.

RELAX, KID, RELAX
Things Are Shap'ed Up. The other day, we served ourselves up a la carte, to the strong and capable ministrations of the Swedish Massage Studio at 130 Nassau and we now feel ready to face all of 1963 with equanimity—and a few return visits. The studio, now beginning its 30th year in Princeton, consists of a husband and wife, Otto and Elma Heiden. Although the Heidens have a roller-massage machine to smite both hip and thigh, and a hip-reducing contraption that looks like an old-fashioned hoop skirt frame, and a cabinet for people who like to perspire, they use chiefly their own trained hands to achieve the results you want.

Massage treatments are based on the fact that fat is delicate and breaks down under kneading and pressure. Regular massage, therefore, breaks up fatty bulges and compresses fat so that it is firm under the skin and not just a mess of floating blubber. In the process, of course, the skilled masseur stimulates the circulation and increases skin tone, relaxes knotted muscles and gives to the sedentary, desk-bound modern some really first-rate exercise.

We emphasize these last re-

No Fingerprints!
Next time you paper a wall, include Resistain in your plans. Wallpapers of Princeton, the shop on Nassau between Chestnut and Moore, is full of praise and demonstration, and so will you be. Resistain is not something you just flip on with a spray can. It is a process which you order when you order your wallpaper. The paper is sent to a factory for processing, and when it comes back, you can write love-letters in lipstick all over it, and wipe them right off. Resistain does not alter the appearance of the paper.

marks because some people think that massage is only for fatties who want to lose their hips. This just isn't so. Mrs. Heiden has customers who come to her after a long, cramped plane ride, to be put back in shape again. Mr. Heiden has busy professors and businessmen who want to be unkinked.

The massage treatment is gentle for beginners. Increasingly vigorous for those who are accustomed to it. If fact, the Heidens can pummel and knead you as mildly or as toughly as you like.

It is a thorough and totally relaxing treatment, with some perfectly splendid fingerwork in the neck and shoulder area and along the spine. Mrs. Heiden even massages your fingertips (she once cured a student of writer's cramp through massage) and works her strong thumb so ingratiatingly into the arch of your foot that you begin to purr like a kitten.

Within the Swedish Massage Studio, there is complete privacy, due to the arrangement of treatment and waiting rooms. Your best friend could be across the hall and you would never encounter her coming or going. The studio is pleasant and home-like, cheerful and relaxing. Relaxing? We'll bet you fall asleep the minute you get home. Hours are 9 to 6 Monday through Friday and from 9 to noon on Saturday; however, appointments may be made for after-hours treatments. The telephone is WA 4-2167.

ANTIQUE VINYL
Good On Any Wall. The solid, pure vinyl wallpaper—as opposed to the vinyl-treated paper—is usually thought of by most housewives as white with green shells and you hang it in the bathroom.

Now Van Luit has come forth with a pure vinyl collection that matches anything you can find in the hand-painted line. Wallpapers of Princeton, on Nassau at the head of Olden, has Van Luit's impressive collection.

Here you'll find a 16th century Chinese damask with a lion-hunting motif, and a design taken from an antique Japanese kimono, featuring chrysanthemums against a shimmering hail-metallic ground. There is an amusing little swag design in black on white and several marble papers. All of these, right down to that Chinese damask, can be washed, scrubbed, sand-blasted if need be, without disturbing their serene, unruined good nature.

On the hand-printed side (we're back with real paper now), Wallpapers has Old Stone Mill's traditional prints, any of which would be charming in a Princeton home with old pine or cherry. Some of Liebhoff and Wallach's hand prints stem from the early 18th

Fund Needs Only $3600

The United Fund-Red Cross campaign has reached 99 percent of its goal of $12,800. Needing $3,600, the drive has collected $309,200.

Any resident wishing to contribute is advised to send a donation to the unit, P.O. Box 201, Princeton. Chairman Robert P. Popino noted that a successful drive will mean that three consecutive campaigns have surpassed their goals.

More than 1,500 volunteers have contributed their time to the drive. About 10,000 Princeton area residents have made donations.

Carlisle-Hazard. Miss Patricia L. Hazard, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harry W. Hazard of 36 Armour Road, to Harbridge J. Carlisle of San Diego, California. December 27; Princeton University chapel.

century. You'll be especially delighted with "Excursions," an adventure in 18th century transportation that would be great fun in a child's room.

A bright, primary border of Swedish herbs is a strong 18 inches deep. "Swiss Navy" is a delicious bit of toiletry, showing a ferocious little galleon entirely surrounded by a solid block of medieval houses.

Greiff uses real flocking in gold on gold or black on white for the most spectacular papers you ever saw. (How to clean flocking? Vacuum it.) All Greiff's are bold, although the circle of flowers in "Lidia Wreath" has a certain delicacy.

Stockwell's "Manor Farm" is a list of herbs and their allied vegetables, all in columns. If the door jam is interlaced, you may never find out what to cook with fennel.

Schumacher, of course, has fine traditional prints, in fruits, flowers and marbles. Ask to see the book of papers from England and marvel at the truly English look of roses against cream.

TICKETS, PLEASE

But Wardrobe Comes First. Tanner is always ready to send you off, and this year he does so with sleeveless, round-collared blouses in a light-hearted spatter of patterns. Look at the baby tigers, the racing zebras, the wild geese, pandas, penguins and swining monkeys, all distributed with random fancy against a solid ground. Mayme Mead keeps the zoo.

Arnel, silk and linen are the cruise fabrics at Mayme Mead's shop, starting with an arnel in blue and white verticle stripes, marked off at the skirt edge with the same stripes laid horizontally.

A leman linen is piped in white and a white silk shantung is piped with a regal royal blue. Chartreuse linen is blocked out with narrow strips of white tape that make an all-over checker-board.

One of the most spectacular is Tanner's silk print with royal and red flowers the size of giant hibiscus blooms, rampant against a white ground. How light in weight the silk is!

Another silk print is a tropical-looking thing with lime green for a home base. Around land of 36 Stanley Avenue, local treasurer of the Princeton Elementary Schools PTA; and Dr. Robert A. Lively, 39 University Place, history professor at Princeton University.

Retiring members of the board are Mrs. Peter McCahan and Dr. Jeremiah S. Finch. The school board election will be held on Wednesday, February 13, at which time the proposed school budget of $1,529 for the school year 1963-64 will also be put to the public vote. Board members serve a three-year term without pay.

SLATE IS SET

Contest For School Board. Five candidates have filed for the three positions open on the Township School Board. The election will be held February 13.

Newcomers who have filed are Donald H. Riddle, 63 Deer Path, M. Lawrence Bayera, 132 Terhune and Mrs. Leslie L. Vivian, Jr., 73 Maclean Circle.

Fac incumbents who have filed are Mrs. Jess Epstein, 7 Littlebrook, who will seek her third term; and George M. Crocker, Pretybryk Road, who will run for his second term. Lawrence Thompson will not run for re-election.

POE ISSUES REPORT

His Last as Bank President. John P. Poe released his final annual message as president to the shareholders of the First National Bank this week. He will retire this Thursday, continuing as a consultant and a member of the board of directors.

When he became president of the institution in 1941, capital funds were under $700,000 and deposits totaled $650,000. Today, the respective figures are $2,868,236.61 and $42,882,422.80. A five-year progress report appears on pages 20 and 21.

Mr. Poe cited the increase of capital funds during the past year by 2000 shares at $300 a share, both as loans to shareholders and as stock dividend. Deposits loans and investment all expanded in 1962, with resources totaling $462,687,190.08.

Goodbye, Morvov?

"We are trying to fight it along," said Governor Richard Hughes the other day when a reporter asked during a press conference about life in "Morvov."

"There are great problems," the Governor continued, adding that logistics "was one of them. He said that he and Mrs. Hughes had trouble getting domestic help among other things, and that they were seriously thinking about closing the executive mansion and returning to Trenton to live.

"I haven't reached that point yet," he said, "we are trying to fight it along. For instance, the other day I turned on the cold water tap and there was no water."

"I don't know whether it was the Princeton water works or some pipe broken, but it's a little headache."

Things like this seem to multiply in this somewhat old, but very beautiful house."

Higher Interest. Interest on savings certificates was raised to 4 percent compounded quarterly last year, as investments made by the bank earned more. In addition, tax-exempt investments were doubled.

Valuation reserves against possible losses on loans were increased to $376,363.92, the maximum permitted by the Department of Internal Revenue.

New Building. The First National opened Princeton's first drive-in bank in December at 370 Nassau Street, and acquired property on Witherspoon Street behind the main office at 90 Nassau. The lot at the corner of Nassau and Riverside Drive was sold at a profit.

Part of a rationale technical error in the practice of development, with duplicate records of transactions stored away from the bank.

Mr. Poe expressed "our appreciation for the support given by our directors and our staff which alone made possible the success we have achieved." He paid tribute to Lloyd Van Seiler and John B. Halken, who died during 1962, and to Harold Hunkeler who resigned from the Board of Directors.

Mr. Poe closed his statement: "I have tried to serve you to the best of my ability through years of stress and economic change, and I appreciate the untiring cooperation I have had from you. I bespeak for my successor the same support you have always given to me."

WEATHER REPORT
1962 Was Cool, Wet, Sunny.

In the past quarter-century, only one year (1820) has produced a lower average temperature than the 12-month period just ended. In 1962, the average for this area was 52.7°.

And, despite the fact that last precipitation was about four inches above normal, the sun also shone with considerable frequency. Rainfall and melted snow measured about 48 inches, but the sun was out 66 percent of the total hours spent above the horizon. The norm in the latter case is 59 percent—considered high in comparison to many parts of the nation.

It was not until the last ten days of the year that the largest snowfall was recorded—four inches on December 21 and 22. Nine falls of an inch or more helped raise the total slightly above normal for the year.

February 11 was the coldest day, officially recorded as severe by the U.S. Weather Bureau in Trenton and as six below by the Stony Brook-Norwich Watershed Association in rural Mercer County. The year bowed out with a reading of one above on December 31. Helping to make the year a cold one were 26 days' icy mizzle (but normal) when the temperature never got above freezing.

year—in contrast to a normal of 18 such days. As a result, the 29 thunderstorms were five less than the average.

All-time high in this area in the past 70 years, 106 in July, 1936; all-time low, 14 below in February, 1934.

DOODGE RE-ELECTED

Planning Budget Completed. The Borough Planning Board has re-elected S. Webber Dodge as chairman, and Bryan V. Moore vice-chairman for the coming year. A budget of $13,243 has been approved for submission.—Continued on Page 12

DEAR TRAVELEX

This is the last year!

No more.

Never again.

Last time.

Absolutely, POSITIVE-LY!

Air fare rates are, by dictum of the Air Traffic Conference (held in Arizona of all places
this year) going UP by
at least 5% after
March 31, 1963.

There have been quite
a few people who have seen this coming and
have taken advantage of it so far. Let us not be remiss for having let
it slip by you, too!

JUMP! NOW, and forever hold your peace.

mission to the Borough Council.
Chairman Dodge appointed
a sub-committee to speed up deliberations over the proposed revisions in the master plan. Arthur P. Morgan, Alan
W. Carrick, the Council representative on the Board; Mr.
Moore and Mr. Dodge will meet monthly with the planning consultant, Francis D.
Mellugh, July is mentioned as
the target date for completing the revised plan.

Franklin Avenue Studied.
The Board discussed the proposed closing of Franklin Avenue in connection with the Borough's planned elementary school on Walnut Lane, near
the high school.

An informal letter from Township Mayor R. Kenneth
Farman was read, setting forth the Township's opposition. The board is considering a traffic study of the roads in the area, to be undertaken by
an independent organization.

STREET PLAN BACKED.
By Residents of Jackson-
son Street neighbors have voiced their approval of the Borough's plan to align the street with Wiggins. A letter of endorsement from a committee representing the First Baptist Church and the John-Witherspoon Street Area Children's Committee was presented to the Mayor and Council on Tuesday night.

The study group was composed of H. Baker, Section
George Holmes, John H. Grip-
per and Redman H. Marrow,
all of First Baptist; and Bryan
V. Moore, Sherman Bates, Edward Scavella and the Rev.
Albert D. Tyson, Jr., of the John-Witherspoon group.

A letter from the Chamber of Commerce was also read,
urging that the work on Jackson Street be completed during the current year. The Mayor and Council authorized
the Borough attorney, Gordon Griffin, to begin property negotiations with First Baptist Church and Palmer Square.
The cost of the Jackson Street realignment will be included in the new budget.

Track By-Pass. Assemblyman Edward J. Kuczyński informed Council that he has introduced a new bill, "A-153,"
in the State Assembly calling for a track by-pass around the highly populated areas in the Borough and Township. The route, formerly known as
"Route 206-A," has now been designated as Route A-A. It will run through Montgomery,
Franklin and South Brunswick.

BOROUGH SCHOOL BALLOT DRAWN: Candidates John A.
Buckland and Edward Hofesang (center) received
second and third positions respectively in the drawing held Saturday by William H. Rhodes, secretary of the Board of Education. Absent candidates were Dr. Elmer G. Homrighausen, who won first bidding, and Dr. Robert A. Lively, fourth listing on the ballot for the February 13 election.

Townships to U. S. 1.
Assemblyman Sweeney asked
that Borough Council and all interested residents write to him in support of bill A-153
to Assemblyman Charles Farrington, and State Senator
Sido Ridoiti.

"We need the letters to get
the bill out of the Highway Committee. When the bill is passed, the appropriation is made, and then, finally, the exact route is settled," he told Council. He was promised full support.

Gas Station. Mayor Henry S.
Patterson alerted Council to
the gas station application
pending before the Zoning Board. The Borough lost a battle in the courts against the application of Burned Grissom
to replace his restaurant at Waterspoon and 11 1/2 Fish
Streets with a gas station.

Attorney Henry M. Stratton
suggested that the Mayor and Council be represented at the hearing, set for 8 p.m. January 24. "In a zoning proceeding,
the Mayor and Council is really
an independent body which has a right to be heard."

The Mayor has also revealed
that the Atlantic Refining Co.
is expected to renew its application for a service station at the corner of Nassau and Markham. The request for a variance was defeated after heated
protests from affected
residents in 1960.

MISS FINE'S SOAKED

Pipes Burst. Water pipes
that burst in the New Year's storm have caused approximately $1,000 of property damage at Miss Fine's School, but classes resumed this Monday
after plumbers, electricians
and carpenters worked around
the clock to repair the damage
and put the school in running order.

Most of the damage was done in the offices of Mrs. Alfred Busselle, assistant to the headmistress, and Miss Shirley Davis, headmistress, on the second floor of the building.
Pipes on the northern end of the structure, one of them an old iron pipe, laid outside with thin insulation, burst their seams and
spread water into the science
laboratory, then down through
the walls to the first floor and
into the basement.

Papers, files and mail, but
nothing of an irreplaceable
nature, were lost in the waters
that flooded Mrs. Busselle's office. No scientific equipment
was lost in the laboratory and no classroom equipment was damaged, according to Mrs.
Thelma Young, business manager.

The school was heated during the holiday period when classes were not in session, but only to a minimal fashion, and
not enough to withstand the low temperatures and winds of late December, Mrs. Young said.

Both Mrs. Young and Mrs.
Busselle expressed thanks to the workmen who "sacrificed
time and effort," in Mrs.
Young's words, to repair the damage in time for classes to resume.

TAVERN CLOSED

Sold to Minor. Cenerino's Tavern, 57 Leitch Avenue, will be closed for five days beginning Monday on charges of selling beer to a minor. Township Committee ordered the closing at Monday night's meeting.

Angelo Cenerino, owner of the Tavern, admitted selling
the beer to an undergraduate on November 17. The student had apparently obtained identification papers from a roommate and, using them, had passed as 21 years of age. He was convicted November 21
by Township magistrate James
S. Hill for illegally entering the tavern and misrepresenting
his age.

"THANKS TO EVERYONE"

From Santa Claus. Writing
to his "dear friends and comrades in arms" in the phonetic typing he has used since he became blind, Henry "Santa Claus" Schultz this week expressed his thanks through TOWN TOPICS to everyone
who took part in 1962's "Operation Santa Claus."

From December 4 until Christmas Eve, Mr. Schultz answered 1,090 telephone calls
and talked to 1,943 boys and girls who wanted to place their orders for Christmas presents.

This year, newspapers in New Brunswick, Newark, Trenton
and Philadelphia as well as in Princeton, carried the Santa Claus story and as a result, Mr. Schultz had calls from "many little children"
throughout New Jersey and around the Philadelphia area.
This was the 13th year that the 77-year-old Santa has sat
by a telephone, answering his calls with "Hello! You are speaking to Santa Claus."

Objects to Sewer Plans.

To the Editor of Town Topics

You made some deletions in my letter on the Hillside-206 Luns-Herron Road Sewer System as printed in last week's issue of TOWN TOPICS.

I wish to bring to the public's attention a salient fact, a year ago the former Board either ignored or did not know of the water-sewer problem in this area when it granted a variance to permit a car wash.

At that time the residents of the Story-Brook Watershed Association pointed out the situation and the variance was tabled, and later turned down. This should be on the public record because it indicates the need for full public airing of all the facts. In view of this it seems very strange that suddenly a problem ignored or unknown a scant year ago has become the excuse for a fantastic sewer ordinance affecting the whole northern section of the Township directly, indirectly the whole Township.

The Editor's note suggested that much of the Township cost would be deferred and assessed to future property owners. And this is precisely my point.

Has the Planning Board, have the Township residents fully considered the implications of putting in a sewer line now to be paid for by 300-500 future houses? Are we prepared to handle that rate of growth?

Should the sewage system be one that takes into account the geographical fact that the natural drainage of this area is in the direction of neighboring Montgomery Township? Or should we pay now for miles of force main which some engineers think is a very unsatisfactory solution?

Has the matter of the adequacy of the water table to support 300-500 more houses in the area been duly considered? These are questions which can and should be fully studied now before work is undertaken on this project.

Why Water Co. Was Sold.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Following is the text of a letter written to the governing bodies of the Borough and Township of Princeton.

"It has come to my attention that there is some public misunderstanding of the recent sale of Princeton University's Company in the Princeton Water Company.

"In order to set the record straight, I put before the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Princeton and the Mayor and the Committee of the Township of Princeton the considerations leading to that sale.

"1) Water supply difficulties last spring brought to attention the plight of a small independent company, founded decades ago under University leadership to fill the needs of a village, now attempting to cope with the demands of a rapidly growing community. Study of the problem during the summer revealed the two most pressing needs of the company to be substantial infusion of new capital and continuous expert executive direction.

"2) These two elements—new capital and executive direction—are most readily available in large water companies. Accordingly, two such companies were approached, and each sent experts to survey the Princeton Water Company. The bids for the University's stock, which, with that of the Theological Seminary, comprise 53% of the total, were so close as to permit free selection between the two bidders. The Elizabethtown Water Company was selected on the basis of its record of 109 years' service in New Jersey, the rival company, while of comparable standing, operates nationally and it was our opinion that the Princeton community might be better served by the New Jersey company.

"3) At no time has an official of any municipality asked me if the University's stock in the Princeton Water Company was for sale. Had such a question come up, reference would have been required to the New Jersey Constitution, which states to effect that, no borough or township shall hereafter acquire or be the owner of securities of any association or corporation. (Article 8, Section 3, Paragraph 2.)

"Let us hope that unnecessary delays will not hold back the preparatory work that must be done now if the Princeton community is to have an adequate water supply during the period of heaviest demand next summer.

"Furthermore, while the matter is under discussion, I suggest that it is fitting to recognize publicly the service which the directors and management of the Princeton Water Company have rendered to the community over the years at no profit to themselves."

Financial Vice President and Treasurer of the University

Person To Person

We were talking about slant expressions and a professor acquaintance explained that many of the phrases that we assume are Americanisms originated hundreds of years ago in other countries. As an illustration, he said, "Hardly anything is more American than the saying, 'He paid through the nose,' meaning that he paid more than he should have, or 'got stung,' but there are records of this phrase being used as far back as 1672 in England, and that was not the beginning of it." Exactly how it originated is not known, but one theory is that it came from the Danes. In the 19th century it seems that they imposed a head tax in Ireland that they called the "nose tax" and that anyone who didn't pay up had his nose slit. This could be called, "paying through the nose" or being stung for money. The phrase has become part of our language because just about everybody at times pays through the nose for something. The fellow who doesn't care WHERE he buys a car, just so long as it looks all right, or is of a particular model or color, is really "asking for it." Where you buy a car is actually the only valuable guarantee you can get that you won't pay through the nose both at time of purchase and afterward. It is our pledged duty to protect you in your car purchase, for we know full well that your continued satisfaction is our greatest asset. huc, wife of a Princeton University graduate student, will instruct the course. Samuel McDowell of Princeton High will conduct a class in the "Techniques and Procedures of Painting in Oils." Other similar courses include one on watercolor painting taught by Mrs. Robert Serrell and a continuation of a fall course in watercolor painting by Mrs. Madeline Hutchinson of Willamette State Teachers College.

WANTS CAR-WASH

On Route 206, Saveria Mangione, whose application to build a car-wash on Route 206 was turned down by Township Committee last spring, will apply again to the Township Zoning Board when the board meets next Thursday. (See "Mailbox," page 14).

Mrs. Mangione's first application was made in December, 1961. At that time, the Zoning Board recommended to Township Committee that the application be approved, but Committee turned down the recommendation and told Mr. Mangione he couldn't build his car-wash. Water supply and sewage disposal problems in the area were the reasons for Committee's refusal.

Carler-Princeton Electronics will ask for a renewal of its variance to allow the assembly of products in its Alexander Street building.

The Zoning Board will also hear on Thursday the B. & D. Construction Company's request for a side-yard variance of six inches.

MEETING SCHEDULED

By Women's Club. The Business and Professional Women's Club of Princeton will hold a dinner meeting at the Holiday Inn, U. S. 1, on Monday at 6:45.

Mrs. Mary Reef, chairman of the club's civic participation committee, has arranged to have Neil Rungler of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company as guest speaker. He will show slides and discuss "Communications in Space." Members and guests are invited to attend.

LICENSE REVOKED

In Township Court, David R. Hahs, 19, of Edgemore Avenue, Plainsboro, was fined $30 for careless driving by Township Magistrate James S. Hill last week.

The youth's license was revoked for 60 days. He pleaded guilty.

NEW SHOP EXHIBITS

Prints On View. Original etchings, signed lithographs and prints by such contemporary artists as Picasso and Miro will be on exhibit and for sale in the new Frame Shoppe, 72 Whipperston Street, starting Tuesday and continuing through January 26.

The Frame Shoppe, located at the address formerly occupied by the late C. Masselos, will offer a custom frame service with all work done on the premises. The new owner has renovated the shop and redesigned it to serve as a combination exhibition gallery and shop.

MRS. BUNTING TO TALK

On Laolian Experiences. Mrs. William L. Bunting of Cranbury will speak on "The Experiences of a Clubwoman in Laos" at a meeting of the Woman's Club of Princeton on Thursday, January 17.

The program will be held at the Shirine Club, 180 River Road. Mrs. Bunting remained in Laos from early in 1959 to August, 1960. Chairman of a committee of this year's annual auction is an orientation program for new American personnel, she also worked with students, teaching them English and helping to provide them with knowledge of America.

Mrs. Frederick Knapp, who serves as hostess chairman of the club's social hour and Mrs. John D. Rockwell will be in charge of flower arrangements. Assisting them are Mrs. James A. Arnold, Jr., Mrs. Warren H. Bliss, Mrs. Murray S. Burkland, Mrs. Charles H. Clerihue, Mrs. Ted Deane, Mrs. Edward R. Farley, Jr., Mrs. Walter B. Foster, Miss Elise Gough, Mrs. J. J. Donald Rugg, Mrs. John P. Smith, Mrs. Alfred D. Summers, Mrs. Marcel Vost, Mrs. C. Richard Whelan and Mrs. Milton S. Winters.

At a coffee hour held Wednesday, 15 new club members were the guests at the home of Mrs. William P. Voorhees, Jr., 67 Longview Drive. Mrs. John P. Scott was in charge of the affair which brought the organization's membership to 247.

The new members are Mrs. E. Van Dyke Wright, Mrs. Gerald Lockyer, Mrs. Thomas M. Gopill, Jr., Mrs. William C. Barnes, Mrs. Dean W. Chace, Mrs. John V. Silcox, Mrs. Ralph W. George, Mrs. James J. Reed, Mrs. Nils J. Oman, Mrs. Gustavus Auer, Mrs. Edward Jenkins, Mrs. Arthur N. Curtiss, Mrs. Kenneth C. Huber, Mrs. Stephen H. Beach and Mrs. E. Lee Martin.

LUNCHEON SCHEDULED

By Smith Club. The Princeton Smith College Club will hold a luncheon this Thursday at the Nassau Inn.

Mrs. John Bales, chairman of this year's annual auction to be held January 26 at Miss Fine School's gymnasium, will discuss plans for the event.

Mrs. Richard Sly, president, will preside.

E. HORNSBY WASSON
PRESIDENT, NEW JERSEY BELL

Why New Jersey Bell is spending over $100 million for construction during 1963

Our state and nation's remarkable growth—and promising future—are creating an unprecedented demand for new telephone services. To help meet this need, New Jersey Bell has new construction projects under way in many parts of the state.

Some of these projects will cost more than a million dollars. Others involve only a few thousand. But every one of them is a part of the never-ending job of bringing more and better telephone service to you and your neighbors.

The total cost will be over $100 million—a big stimulus to the economy of New Jersey. It means more jobs—and more business—in many areas. In fact, almost every section of the state can be expected to benefit.

For example, in Succunanna a new Electronic Central Office is going up that will make new telephone services available to customers. A new dial office is under construction in Trenton. And a major addition is being made to the Telephone Central Office on William Street in Newark. These are just a few of the many projects on which that $100 million will be spent.

It takes a lot of money to bring telephone service to people—especially when it's the best phone service in the world. We're building to keep it that way.

A VOTE FOR THE POPE AND ADLAI: Louis Vendetti (left) goes along with Time magazine in choosing Pope John as Man of the Year. Mario Trani's choice is Adlai Stevenson.

Question of the Week

Question: Time magazine has named Pope John as its Man of the Year. Whom would you have chosen?

Where asked: Around town.

Louis Vendetti, Lawrenceville Road, postal carrier: I think I would choose Pope John, too. He's a very important man and he's never named before. He's working for the good of humanity. That meeting he has called should have an effect all over the world.

Mario Trani, 247 Valley Road, bricklayer: Adlai Stevenson. I feel he has done a great job in representing the United States at the United Nations. He showed that he wasn't afraid to stand up to the Russian delegates at the time of the Cuban situation. It takes an intelligent man to perform his job well and I feel he is one of our best statesmen.

Daniel Baugh, Lakeside Apartments, history teacher, Princeton University: Harold MacMillan. He's taken a rather bold, liberal step, in removing some of the dead wood from his cabinet. He's liberalized his cabinet at a time when there doesn't seem to be any serious opposition from the Labor Party. Also, he's taken a rash and perhaps unpopular step in forcing negotiations for Britain's entry into the Common Market.

Mrs. Roland T. Ely, 144 Constitution Drive, housewife: Pope John, too. I was just reading that and thinking how wise Time's choice was. He's the world's greatest humanitarian and I feel he's made the outstanding contribution of the year. His calling of the Ecumenical Council gives us all, whether Protestant or Catholic, something positive to look forward to in the coming year.

Arthur Lithgow, Lakeside Apartments, member of the Princeton University English Department attached to McCarter Theatre: I agree with Time that was the outstanding choice. The calling of the Ecumenical Council, which was arranged through him, will have a more pronounced effect over more people over a longer period than any other single event of 1962. They don't have these Councils more than once every century, not even that often. I understand more than three years has been spent in preparation for this Council.

Mrs. Robert Ellis, 74 Einstein Drive, housewife: Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. I admire her—not wholeheartedly—but I think she overcame a great many obstacles and lived a rewarding life.

Robert S. Smith, Ewing Township, elevator repair mechanic: There is no question that the Pope has done some outstanding things, but I think I would choose our own president. I think the way he handled the Cuban situation was outstanding. That was a very vital thing as far as the United States was concerned. I feel the president has done a good job in everything throughout the year.

Mrs. Grete Otis, Belle Mead, housewife: Probably my husband. He's struggled very hard this year. He has changed jobs and he's done a good job all around.

John Davidvitch, New York City: As far as I'm concerned, I would choose U. Thant. I thought he worked harder for peace than anyone else throughout the year.

Mrs. R. H. Bing, 100 Einstein Drive, housewife: I feel that is a pretty good choice myself. The Ecumenical Council that the Pope has called will stress peace and unity among all the churches of the world—things we are all striving for.

Kenneth House, South Bound Brook, charter pilot for Princeton Airport: I think Kennedy. I think he was instrumental in getting the United States out of the Cuban crisis. I think he did a good job.

Miss Judy Kersenbrock, 95 Wilson Street, singer in the Robert Shaw Chorus: I think Time made a good choice but I feel President Kennedy should be on top of the list for the role he played in the settlement of the Cuban crisis.

Michel Shen, 71 Moran Avenue, graduate school, chemistry: I would choose the Pope, too. Since the Dark Ages, Christianity has been split, yet Protestantism and Catholicism are, basically, precisely the same in spirit, as far as religion is concerned. It is unfortunate since Christ taught us to love even our enemies that there is any dissension among fellow Christians. I think the move that the Pope has made, calling the Ecumenical Council, is a step toward unification and that this is more momentous than any other event.

Miss Judy Platten, Westcott Road, research department, Woodrow Wilson School: Well, I think President Kennedy deserves more credit than Pope John. I feel he has done a tremendous job in running the country. I don't know what would have happened if any—

TIGERS AT HOME AGAIN
For Two Ivy Games. Despite the fact that they have four Ivy League games in the next days—two of them against prime opponents—Princeton's basketball forces are looking ahead to their return meeting with Penn on February 2. Having lost to the Quakers by three points before a raucous houseful of 9,250 Palestra fans, the Tigers are extremely anxious to have at them in Dillon Gym.

Before that, however, defending champion Yale and last-place Brown are on tap here this Friday and Saturday. A week later, a trip to Columbia and Cornell is on the schedule, and the Tigers must win the tough ones—Yale here and Cornell away—to keep in touch with Penn.

Ellis Are Tall and Rugged. Friday night's contests is virtually certain to be one of those whistle-shrilling affairs in which close guarding and constant contact under the basket produce a steady parade to the foul line. Yale's big men (6-8 Steve Gaudin and 6-6 Dave Schunacher) are eager receivers under the boards; add to that is the increased number of personals every team Princeton plays commits. The Bulldogs were somewhat unexpected victors in last year's Ivy chase, compiling a fine 13-1 record when favored Penn and Princeton faltered with more experienced teams. Sharpshooter Rick Kaminsky, their big threat, is extremely agile, shoots well and is the "big" best bet to top 20 points in an evening. To date, the Blue has won a home-and-home series from undermanned Brown, but has found the going quite rougher against strong non-Ivy opposition, compiling a 3-6 record to date.

Brown, fifth in the Ivy chase in 1962 with a 6-8 mark, lost heavily through graduation and will do well to escape the cellar.

Earth, a good big man, is their only major threat and the Blue will come into Dillon Gym with a 4-6 record.

Yale goes to the Palestra Saturday, scene of its lone Ivy defeat in last year's race. Tip-off on this year's winner will come when one or more of the four best bets (Cornell, Penn, Princeton, Yale) either fails to win any Ivy game at home or to defeat any of the probable tail-enders (Brown, Columbia, Dartmouth, Harvard) on the road. Belief here is that an 11-3 mark will be good enough for a share of first place.

Tigers Gave Too Much Away. If Princeton had started its fine second-half surge against Penn on Saturday from a point somewhere near even with the Quakers, it would have won going away. But despite the fact that they jammed their 18 points in less than six minutes while holding the Quakers to five, the great rally did no more than bring the Tigers even. From a 48-41 deadlock with 2:43 to go, Penn made five out of six free throws, was good enough defensively not to foul Princeton at all and won, 65-62.

Princeton may not be a one-man team—because Captain Art Hyland and classmate Haarlrow have consistently been in double figures this year—but the Tigers are certainly no better than a three-man team. Of the 726 points they have made to date, the top three scorers have accounted for 560 of them—almost 80 percent! At the Palestra, a good part of the answer was that if this trio could not be stopped, no one else Princeton used was worth worrying about.

Trouble came, too, from the fact that the Tigers had far and away their coldest night in field goal shooting. Going into the game with a great 48 percent average, they hit only 19 of 54 for a strictly routine 35 percent. Constantly harassed, Bradley made only six of 19, but again converted 14 of 18 free throws and maintained his superb average of 86 percent.

Penn was never behind after taking a 6-5 lead early in the evening. The Quakers had a 30-26 half-time advantage, largely because the Tigers went for a stretch of 11 minutes during which they made only a single field goal. They did, however, draw numerous fouls, converting 12 of 16, and causing such a turnover in the Penn lineup that four of the latter's five starters were on the bench well before the half ended.

Slow Start Costly. It was the first ten minutes of the second half that eventually saddled Princeton with a slide more than it could handle. Good play by the Quakers' Captain John Wideman, Sid Amira and Jeff Sturm the latter a highly valuable reserve who chipped in with 13 points paced the home team to leads of 44-36 with 12 minutes to go and then 53-42

INTO THE THICK OF IT! Bill Van Breda Koffel will lead Princeton's basketball team into a pair of Ivy League basketball games in Dillon Gym this weekend. SRO crowds of 3,000 are expected with eight minutes left.

It was during this stretch that the officiating so upset Coach Bill Van Breda Koffel that his comments to referee Steve Hovro resulted in a technical foul charged to the Tiger coach. Penn promptly converted the free throw to add to its margin.

Hyland and Haarlrow got the drive under way. Bradley clamped it with a field goal and three free throws, the last creating a 60-all tie with 2:43 on the clock. Thereafter, however, Amira made good on four fouls, sandwiching them around a quick break to narrow the margin to 63-62 with a minute and a half left. Shortly thereafter, the Tiger captain stole the ball and was away downcourt alone but the whistle nullified the play on a charging call. The officiating was displeasing to both coaches most of the evening, but it is rarely otherwise in a game decided by three points.

SKATERS LOSE TWO MORE. To Colgate and Williams in the two-day trip into New York and Massachusetts last week, added another pair of defeats to the Princeton hockey team's record, saddling it with a 2-8 mark for the season. Colgate's better-than-average skaters woo, 3 to 1, more or less as expected, but the 5-4 overtime loss to a lightly-regarded Williams sextet was a real shocker.

The Tigers were scheduled to four Army's vast rink at West Point Wednesday and head for Providence Saturday to meet Brown in a return match. They defeated the favored Bruins, 6-2, here last month but a repeat performance is unlikely. Next week will see a good St. Nicholas Hockey Club here Wednesday night and Cornell Saturday afternoon in the wrap-up before the examination break.

Bright spot of the two most recent losses were three goals credited to Johnny Cook, raising to 117 points his three-year career total. Two more will see him break the all-time Princeton record held by John McBride.

Cook delivered Princeton's only score against Colgate, the shot at 11:27 of the second period bringing the Tigers even. That deadlock lasted just ten seconds, however, the victors going on to raise their season's record to a remarkable 9-1.

Fifty-four minutes in penalties proved more of a handicap than the team could overcome at Williamstown. Two of these were misconducts; 19 were of the two minute variety, an extremely high total.

Pony Fraker and George Peterson scored for the Tigers, and Cook's second goal brought Princeton even shortly before regulation time ended. At 3:42 of the ten-minute sudden-death round about half gone, the home team scored for

PHS WINS FAIR

To Climb to 4-0. To the familiar adage that nothing succeeds like success, Princeton High School basketball coach Tony Borzok must feel like adding, "or like a team that is determined to win."

To overcome a lack of experience and a lack of height, the Little Tigers have combined a fierce determination to win, superb conditioning and a solid defense. So successful has this formula been for PHS is that it has yet to be defeated. "They're a team now," said Borzok after his squad had registered its fourth straight. "Everyone is pulling for just one thing—and that's to win."

If Princeton High's bubble is to burst, it will quite likely happen Tuesday evening when it meets Steiart High School. The contest will start at 7:30 and will be held at the Steiart gymnasium. For the Little Tigers, it will be their fifth consecutive road game, with two more to come before they return home.

The Steiart clash will rank as the Blue and White's stiffest test of the season for two reasons: 6-5 Matt Cronin and 6-4 Bill Smith. If PHS can overcome the decided height advantage the Spartans will carry into the contest, then its followers may well switch from asking, how well Princeton do this season, to who is going to stop the Blue and White?

Franklin Township Falls. Larry Madden scored 16 points for PHS and Frank Baker scored 16 for Franklin Township, the home team, but Madden received much more support from his teammates as the Little Tigers rolled up their biggest point total of the season to defeat Franklin on Friday, 60-42. For Princeton, captain Hank Schmidt, Dave Hill and Jimmy Case each scored eight points and John Kowalski added nine more to share in the scoring honors.

The visitors, who apparently haven't heard of the term home-court advantage, jumped to a 17-3 margin at the end of the first quarter and led throughout. Again it was Princeton's cat-like defense that dominated the game.

Time and again, Hill and Schmidt intercepted Franklin passes or stole the ball for easy layups or send the losers on the way to their second defeat in five contests. Schmidt was particularly effective in shutting up Franklin's top player, Baker, whom Borzok described as having "a fabulous touch."

"We got a little hit away from our regular defense and put Hank on Baker and had him play him no matter where he went," said Borzok. "Hank stayed with him 'til Baker fouled out. He got 10 or 12 points in the first half but then Hank got on to his moves and it was all over."

Against Hunterdon Central last Wednesday, PHS carried the art of defense to its quinquagescence. The Little Tigers limited the home team to just seven field goals for the entire contest to win their third straight, 34-22. "It was an unusual game, something like oldtime basketball," said Borzok.

points in Princeton, the statistics of this encounter border on the bizarre. Though Borzok led just two points in the second period PHS led at the half, 11-10. The losers' high in any one period was eight.

Central Puzzled. "I think they were puzzled by our defense," said Borzok. Though Borzok felt Central may have mistaken Princeton's defense for a man-to-man, it was a box zone employed by PHS that held the home team offense to ineffective long range shots. In the second half, the Little Tigers switched to a deliberate attack and hit for more than enough baskets to win. The leaders of this attack were the Blue and White's one-two scoring machine, Madden and Schmidt. Madden led all scorers with ten. Schmidt trailed with seven.

Not unexpectedly, Borzok continues to be well-pleased with the performances of his team. And there are signs that PHS is still in process of becoming an even better, more efficient team. "The kids have opened up a little more. Their shooting percentage is much better, particularly from the foul line. They're really jelling now—getting to know each other's moves which makes it easier."

Borzok further reported that his players are getting their timing down to the point where PHS may not be as vulnerable to a taller team as was once thought. "We've been able to protect our own bas-

LEADING SCORER: Princeton High School's Larry Madden is the leading scorer for the Little Tigers with 55 points in the first four games, he said. Borzok, Kowalski and Kane have got their timing down to where they have been able to take the ball away from taller players. It's all a question of timing," he added. The accent on defense will continue, according to Borzok. "The kids are sold on it. We have to stay with that." By playing with defense, PHS is moving steadily in the right direction.

ASBURY DEFEATED AGAIN

By Samino A. C. For the second time within a week, the Asbury Park YMCA basketball team found Samino A. C. too much to handle. Samino defeated the shore quintet in a return contest Thursday at the Princeton High School gymnasium, 86-66.

The two teams battled on even terms for the first three periods with Samino holding a slim, three-point margin at the three-quarter mark. Then, at the start of the final period, Samino's Bob Cooper found the range and hit for ten points to break the game wide open. The victors went on to outscore the collapsing visitors two-to-one in the period. Approximately 100 Samino followers witnessed the encounter.

Larry Ivan, who played two years of varsity basketball for the University of Oklahoma, and Bob Kehoe, former all-state performer for Princeton High School and Lawrenceville, kept Samino in contention during the first half. Hitting mostly on one-handed jumpers, Ivan scored 16 points and Kehoe pumped in several long shots.

A major contributor to the Samino victory, indeed in all of Samino's consecutive victories this season, was Carl Belz. The former Princeton University standout and All-Ivy League choice was outstanding in rebounding and scored at least six points in every period, except the second. His steady marksmanship enabled Carl to tie Ivan for scoring honors with 20 points apiece. Other double-figure performances were turned in

Has Perfect Record. The Samino squad is one of the finest to represent the Princeton area in many years. It is currently leading the Princeton YMCA and Industrial League with a 6-0 record. In compiling its perfect record, Samino has been averaging more than 100 points per game.

Other members of the powerful club include Jack Petrone, long active in both baseball and softball; Bill and Charlie Stryker, former PHS stars; and Ray Tamasi, who holds the record for the most points (38) scored in a single game in the YMCA-Industrial League. Dick Cooper has played against many respected teams including the Harlem Magicians.

Its player-coach is Danny Sculler. He reports that Samino will meet another undefeated shore team Thursday night at 8:30 at the PHS gym. The squad resumed play in the YMCA League Wednesday, opposing RCA Astro for the first time.

DAILY INTEREST makes the difference!

How is interest figured on your savings account? The method can be more important than the rate. Study this chart. Why this tremendous difference in interest over just one quarterly period? Because, when your savings earn DAILY INTEREST, they earn interest from the day of deposit to the day of withdrawal—not just on the low balance during the calendar quarter. And, at First Trenton, 3% interest is compounded every three months. This interest then starts earning DAILY INTEREST, too!

The Red and Black will meet Germantown Friends away on Friday and then return home for a contest against Bryn Athyn on Tuesday. The Bryn Athyn game will be held in the Princeton Theological Seminary gymnasium. Game time is 7:35.

Hun opened its busy week with a contest this Wednesday against neighboring Pennington School, defending champion. It was the Penn-Jersey League. It was the Red and Black's second game of the season; the first was a 54-39 loss to Pingry in December.

SIEJA, SECOND

In State Championships, Doo Sieja, a senior at Hun School, took second place in the State 141 lb. School Championships for 1962. The older son of State Sieja, fencing coach at Princeton University, had a 17-2 score for the day and a 6-4 mark for the final round.

Flashing behind Mike Gaylor, Sieja captured the Morton-Cundari Welfare Association gold trophy in the tournament held at Essex Catholic High School, Newark. Both Gaylor and Sieja are members of the State Junior Olympic Fencing squad. The tournament, open to all foil fencers of high school age, drew 42 competitors representing 12 New Jersey and New York schools and fencing clubs.

BOYS WIN, GIRLS LOSE

In Flying Fish Meets. The boys team of the Princeton Flying Fish Club traveled to Ashbury Park last week where it edged the Ashbury Park YMCA, 98-91. The victory raised its record to 3-2-1.

The girls were less fortunate as they lost to a strong Morris town YWCA, 116-64, for their third defeat in five competitive meets. They will play host to the Shore Area YWCA Saturday at 2 at the Princeton pool.

A diving team from the Princeton Y entered the eighth annual Philadelphia Indoor Diving Championship and returned with three medals. David Bush won a gold medal in the boys 12 and under, Jennifer Clinton won a second place in girls 13 and 14, and Leslie Bush won a third in 15 years and older. Jacqui Lindner, Nancy Wise and Jill Agadjanian also placed in the official scoring. Over 80 ranking divers participated in the event.

BOWLING NOTES

Balestrieri Takes First. Balestrieri won the first-half title in the "B" League by a 16-point margin over second place Kase Kleeners. The champions captured three victories last week to finish with a 70-point total.

Jaspunen finished third with 54 points, two in front of Ivy Inn and Sport Number One who were tied for fourth place.

Talk about growth potential... you're looking at it!

Woods... fox tails... there are plenty of them in the "Jersey Meadows!" But they are disappearing... and as they disappear industry is bursting forth here into full bloom. Located right in the middle of the world's richest market, just a bird's eye view from New York City, and adjacent to deep water ports, overland transportation and several major airports, this former wasteland is destined to become one of America's great industrial concentrations. The shaded areas in the photo indicate where industrial parks are completed, or are in the planning stage.

Thus, diversified growth continues in New Jersey. This kind of farsighted, planned growth has become a philosophy in our state. It is also the philosophy of Public Service Electric and Gas Company. It calls for ever increasing expansion of our services — one billion dollars' worth in the last ten years — to stay ahead of the demand.

With the responsibility of serving more than 80% of New Jersey's population, Public Service sees no reason why the state's remarkable growth trend should change in 1963.

VIOLIN RECITAL GIVEN
By Ruggiero Ricci. On Monday evening at McCarter Theatre, Series 1 of the Princeton University Concerts presented the violinist Ruggiero Ricci, one of the most Leon Fommers in sonatas by Brahms (No. 2, A major, Beethoven (No. 8, A major, and Prokofiev (No. 1, F minor). In addition, Ricci played two works for violin solo: the Hindemith Sonata, Op. 31, No. 2, and Paganini's Variations on the Paisiello "Nel cor piu non mi sento."

If one limits one's remarks to Ricci's playing, taken in its own terms, the report is not unfavorable. His technique is satisfactory, although by no means perfect; there was some remarkable execution, especially the Paganini, although doubtless some of this is designed to look more difficult than it is, but there were also patches of poor intonation and, particularly at lower volume levels, some uneven tone quality.

The program, too, spoke well of the violinist's intentions, although neither of the modern works could be described as masterpieces. Hindemith's Sonata was the briefer of the two, but the more effective, ending with a set of arbitrary variations on the poor, defenseless "Komm, lieber Mai" of Mozart. Prokofiev's first Sonata offers not as much from its paucity of invention as from its garish tendency to say everything twice and then to repeat the last few words several times again, as if to make sure that they are heard.

The crux of the matter, however, comes with the Beethoven and Brahms Sonatas — and these remarks apply to nearly every violin (and cello) recital that has been given in McCarter Theatre in recent years: Monday's recital is by no means unique in this respect. If the purpose of these concerts is to include the proper performance of the duet repertoire of Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, Schumann, Brahms, etc., this purpose is not likely to be achieved by a virtuoso fiddler whose musical inclinations and a journeyman pianist. There is simply no point to these shapeless performances with which we are presented year after year in this repertoire; the music is for two equal performers, and it should be clear that equal care (and, quite probably, equal fee) will have to be expended in the hiring of those performers if a satisfactory musical experience is to result.

RUGGIERO RICCI
Charley, contralto, will be soloist.

Anyone who wishes to attend and to sing may do so. The Society has asked that reservations for music and refreshments be made with MacKenzie Bryan, WA 4-0453, between 2 and 3 p.m.

WEINRICH TO PLAY
In All-Bach Program. Carl Weinrich, University chapel organist, will give a recital in memory of Ijelena Woolworth McCann Sunday at 3:30 in the University Chapel. Mrs. McCann gave the University the chapel organ.

The program will be based entirely on the works of Bach and will consist of the Concerto in A minor, No. 2; the Trio-Sonata in C major, No. 3; four chorale-pretudes: "An Wasserflüssen Babylon," "Wir glauben all an einen Gott," "Dies sind die heiligen zehn Gebot," "Lobet Jesus, wir sind heilig" and the Prelude and Fugue in E flat major.

During January, Mr. Weinrich will give recitals and conduct master classes in Hartford, Conn., Youngstown, O.; and Duke University, Durham, N. C. In February, he will travel to Colorado and to California for concert engagements.

PRO MUSIC TO APPEAR
With Renaissance Music, The New York Pro Musica Motet and Choir and Wind Ensemble under Noah Greenberg will present a concert Monday at 8:30 in Alexander Hall under the auspices of the Advisory Council for the Princeton University Department of Music and the Friends of Music at Princeton.

The program will consist of music for the Mass of the Nativity of the Virgin Mary by Heinrich Isaac and Josquin des Pres. Admission to the concert is by invitation, but seats remaining in Alexander Hall at 8:20 will be made available to the public.

TO PLAY HARBISON WORK
In Symphony Orchestra. "Song for Soprano and Small Orchestra," by the Princeton composer, John Harbison, will be presented by the Princeton Symphony Orchestra at the orchestra's second concert of the season to be held January 28 at 8:15 p.m. at McCarter Theatre. Sheila Marks will sing the soprano solo and Mr. Harbison will conduct his own composition. The remainder of the program, to be conducted by Nicholas Harsanyi, will consist of Schubert's Overture to "Rosamunde," the Greig Piano Concerto with William Masselos as soloist and Haydn's Symphony No. 46 in D.

PROF. FORBES TO SPEAK
In Westminster Chapel. Elliott Forbes, professor of music at Harvard University, will speak in the Westminster Choir Chapel on Tuesday, at 8 p.m.

Director of Harvard's glee club, he will lecture on the "Revision of Thayer's Life of Beethoven." Mr. Forbes is the editor of a new edition of the composer's biography scheduled for publication in 1964.

The lecture is open to the public free of charge. Cards for admission may be obtained from the president's office at Westminster.

AMATEURS TO SING
Vivaldi, Schuetz. Works by Vivaldi and Schuetz will be on the program when members of the Princeton Society of Musical Amateurs gather Sunday at 5 in the gymnasium of Miss Fine's School.

The group, under the direction of Barbara Lewis for this season, will sing Vivaldi's "Gloria" and "The Fables" by Schuetz. Stephen Prushin will be the pianist and Laura Hayes, soprano, and Jean and their availability to scholars.

Dr. Arthur S. Link, professor of history at the University, will speak on his project of editing the papers of the late President Woodrow Wilson. A sampling of letters exchanged between the late president and his wife, Ellen Axson Wilson, will be exhibited.

Can you spare a dime?

You know the kids have fun browsing in this friendly place. Now, we have hundreds of wonderful inexpensive paperbacks for youngsters of all ages.

A dime a day would be a good investment in fun and learning.

If you and dad want to see for yourselves, remember: we're the night owls' favorite haunt.

Elizabeth James says:
WHERE AM I WHERE ARE THE BUTTERNUT TREES?

On this attractive 10 acre estate of course. Some of the trees are at the edge of the property. A tree in the house. The property, a tremendous view, has 4 children's bedrooms, 2 1/2 bathrooms, nicely remodeled, as well as a well landscaped garden, beautiful shrubs and lawn. Convenient to Princeton and Philadelphia commuting.

An excellent value for $35,000.

Additional land available.
